Maybe this story will be finished in this way or through different types of path but a member of Local Violence against Women Committee was recognize the situation through a local source. He was looking with very anxiety that some influential community members are tying to stop and evaporate the situation with permanently through a eye washing meeting (salish). In this context, this committee which is working under JNNPF at Dhaka north was involve this situation and influenced the community leaders and legal agency for Jamil,s punishment for this crime. So, now Jamil is in custody and Mili is passing a peach full life with her family. Now Mili is very careful about the relationship with another one in society . She says ‘ now I know what the realty and I will try my best to develop myself as a empowered one and now I do not believe any one easily, I lost my faith on the men ’ . Though, Meli’s experience is a mirror of darkness in our society but We want to lightening this society through our willingness. Though we know, we can not protect a huge number of Mili in Bangladesh whose are trafficking in each and everyday .
