

They were Dream World

(What will be they drop out?)

Children are of the dream world. They are go to school regularly .They don't any think without schooling and playing.SOHAY always helped with the Slum children. SOHAY pick up the children from the street, for changes their life.SOHAY is a national, Non-government not profit social development origination. SOHAY started in 2003 the number of the children was 25. Most of the children's parents' housemaid, rickshaw puller, vegetable seller, and day labor. Their economic condition is very low. They are first generation is learners and parents are illiterate. SOHAY always awareness in the slum people the benefit of the education.Now It aims how to change the opinions of slums dwelling families on education and helps children gain access to local government primary school.Most number of the parents don't know that the all primary education is free.SOHAY believes that education change life and skill is livelihood.

SOHAY started only 25 student,it has increased day by day and now present number of student 2101 in 2013.At first SOHAY started only one center, and one school but now SOHAY has become 16 center and working the four government primary school.SOHAY children go to school regularly and after school they come to the center for complete their school homework. Here they are not only studying, beside they are practices song,dance,and sports .In this why they were interest come to the center and school.They were trying up their life and to live a middle class.

SOHAY is relay grateful to the manusherjonno foundation for this support to the SOHAY education programed.SOHAY's Finance very limited .It's impossible for SOHAY to stand by the side of such moment of slum student without helps them.

If SOHAY don't help them, then will be stop their Study? Won't they go to school with groups?The dream world they will absurd the darkness of the night .Thus their happy life will be end. Will be stop their imaginary foot ware in the dreamworld?

Allah basset all slum children.
